

Wye & Sep Lets Band Together – Saturday 30 January 2016

Wye Beach Hotel is proud to present Wye & Sep Bands together. A day of musical relief and celebration of the wonderful community of Wye River, Separation Creek and Kennett River.

An all day free event at the Wye Beach Hotel (19-21 Great Ocean Road, Wye River). Come and help us raise money for residents who have lost their homes as a result of the Christmas Day bush fire.

With live music spanning a wide range of genres (from old time american, to country, to blues) there will be something for everybody.

LINEUP:

Perch Creek

Immigrant Union

Imogen Brough

Crepes

Masco Sound System

Sagamore

Little Rabbit

The Gin Slingers

Forever Son

Mr. Black & Blues

Dreamin' Wild

A charity auction will feature in the evening, with kind donations offered for sale. Watch this space for updates, but currently up for grabs:

- A Clipsal 500 package, including a 2 day wine tour of the Barossa Valley in the new Mazda MX 5, accommodation, flights to Adelaide, and a hot lap around the racetrack.
- A signed yellow leaders jersey from Cadell Evans
- A $3000 new home or renovation report from Archicentre
- A Qantas flight simulator experience for 2 people in their Boeing 737 simulator.
- Assorted, framed musical, sporting and commemorative memorabilia
- A 5 night family accommodation package at the Big 4 Golden River Holiday Park, Mildura
- The backline drum kit used by the bands on the day. This will be signed by all the bands, and has been donated by one of our chefs, Wayne Yee
- A Waeco medium/large car fridge, donated by Adtrans Used Truck Sales

The day will kick off at 12:00PM. Donations will be accepted upon entry, and throughout the day. Bring full pockets!

This is a family friendly event. Alcohol will be served, but there will be a strongly enforced 'No Dickheads Policy' to ensure the day is as relaxing and enjoyable as possible for everybody.