

Memorium to Paddy

He must not be forgotten
Paddy Harrington was Wye

Anyone who knew this man was lucky, and so was I

Try putting pen to paper
In an effort to explain

How proud I was to call him friend
We won't see his like again

For Paddy was a simple man
His needs were very small

He gave more than he ever took Yes, Paddy gave his all

To anyone who called him friend
He was a gentleman and looked for very little Throughout his whole life span

So please remember Paddy in some very simple way

Cause Wye and Separation
Speak of him each day

And children of the future
As they breathe this healthy air

Should know of Paddy Harrington
And treat this land with care

As Paddy Did!
